Leeds School Managers Forum

School Business Leaders Conference, West Yorkshire 11th February 2020, Cedar Court Hotel, Wakefield

In conjunction with FusionHR, Leeds School Managers Forum are holding their annual School Business Leaders conference on 11th February 2020. Designed to provide support on key topics that school leaders, in and around Leeds and Wakefield, need to assist them in their role. We are pleased to share with you the Agenda for the day and information about our key speakers.

Drew Povey (Formerly Educating Greater Manchester)

Drew Povey is an influential Leadership Authority with a unique multi-sector viewpoint on creating innovative and sustainable change that can help prepare and empower individuals and teams for this ever-changing world.

Drew has a wealth of experience working alongside leaders from within Education. As a highly skilled and experienced Executive leader, he has his very own bespoke models and programmes for organisational improvement, development and growth and he has received phenomenal feedback by a range of leaders from within the various sectors he works.

Drew works with Executive boards, whole organisations, teams and individuals. His purpose really is quite simple; to develop people and inspire excellence. Supporting leaders to achieve their short and long-term goals and in doing so be the best leaders that they can be.

Howard Jackson (Hub4Leaders)

Over the last 30 years, Howard has trained School Business Managers, Governors and Headteachers about finance. Prior to setting up his own education finance consultancy business in 1993, Howard's roles included internal audit, commercial FD, and School Business Manager and was also the founder of the Northern Bursars Group and has acted as Non-Executive Director of the National Bursars Association.

In 2013, Howard founded Hub4Leaders and his passion for the sector and his extensive knowledge of financial planning for schools has seen him author a nationally circulated document on financial planning (published by the DfE). He also lead a major training programme on behalf of the DfE, attends international conferences as a keynote speaker and, most importantly, empower thousands of school leaders with the knowledge and tools to plan for their school's future. Using this extensive experience and as a fellow of ISBL, he will look how to match your vision with limited resources in tough economic times.

Meet colleagues, listen and learn from a wide range of education-sector experts.
